Pyrex is set to reveal its new brand in 2017, along with an ever-growing range of products. After celebrating its 100th birthday, Pyrex has re-branded to further enhance its products. Pyrex's CMO, Alexia, is very excited to share an Ambience look and feel to the Pyrex brand - a return to a traditional brand that has so much opportunity. Borealis glass was the Pyrex's first product range in 1915 and the material will continue to be a highlight of new glass ranges. Pyrex will also be introducing a new range of metal bakeware to the existing popular metal bakeware with the new Magic range while new solutions have been added to the successful top of stove range. Expert new stainless steel range. Expert designed in line with the ever-popular trend for fresh and healthy cooking.

...which has secured two Red Dot Design awards - for the knives and cast iron collection. In fact, five of its latest collections have secured Red Dot Design awards, including the ravioli set. With Leo Berghoff brings playful colours, pure shapes and soft textures to the kitchen. Wooden handles versus synthetic ones, soft-touch materials opposed to stainless steel, cork and bamboo fibres. The company's in-house designer Pieter Robb chose each resource to demonstrate its particular qualities in function and design - "an approach that caught the eye of the Red Dot Design jury who promptly honoured the ravioli stamps and the pizza set with the Red Dot Design award," says president Raf Vanhulst.
