

Bulk 15OZ glass candle jars with lids embossed honeycomb pattern design

In order to praise the hardworking, dedicated and dedicated working people, the designer of Sunny Glassware designed the appearance of this candle jar as a bee and a honeycomb.

The internal distribution structure of the honeycomb is even and orderly. It can be seen that it is refined, clear division of labor, efficient cooperation, civilized and orderly, and very team spirit. Once the flowers are found, they will call friends, sow powder and gather honey; and once the individual is attacked, the bee colony hug together, work together, and use enough collective wisdom and strength to defeat each other.

Bees also have the spirit of dedication. They eat and drink dew, gather flowers and make nectar, take bitterness for pleasure, and are willing to contribute, regardless of personal gains or losses. Even in the protection of rights, they attack the other party and set out bee needles. They do not hesitate to face that their lives are about to end.
