The selected ceramic materials are emitted and polished at high temperatures, and the glaze is as smooth as a mirror, with a three-dimensional and exquisite diamond-shaped texture. It recreates the classic outline of the teapot. It is a "beauty standard" no matter where it is placed. Can humidify and become an extension of family aesthetics

It comes with a built-in silent atomization system. Once opened, the mist spreads quietly without any noise disturbance. Whether it's creating a refreshing atmosphere in the office or humidifying the bedroom before going to bed to help with sleep

The teapot is small and exquisite in shape and can be easily accommodated on the tabletop or on the bedside. The "Healing Humidification Station" can be carried even during business trips and travels (note: it must be power-compatible), allowing you to move it to a new scene at any time and ensure that there is no beauty of moisture
